- Blue | A blue steak is seared quickly on high heat. Cool inside and practically raw.
- Rare | Cool, red center with a soft and tender texture. Seared slightly longer with some juices flowing.
- Medium Rare | Characterized by a warm, red center. Very popular choice! Seared to perfection. Warm, red-pink centre. Flavourful and tender!
- Medium | Warm, pink center with a predominantly brown, seared exterior. Good balance between tenderness and flavor.
- Medium Well | Seared for longer, mostly brown with a faint pink center. Firm texture but still tender with some juices still present.
- Well done | Seared until brown throughout with little to no pink. Firm and drier texture and have a reduced level of juiciness.
